¡MUÉVANSE!
5th Annual Professional Development Day for Teachers of Spanish
Saturday, June 13, 2020

CALL FOR PRESENTATIONS

The Department of Spanish at UNT is pleased to announce the Call for Presentations for its 5th Annual Professional Development Day for Teachers of Spanish that will take place on Saturday, June 13, 2020 in the Language building of the University of North Texas. This day-long event provides hands-on, fun workshops for teachers of Spanish at all levels though mainly geared towards instructors of grades 6 to 12. All workshops are conducted in Spanish. Participants will receive up to 7 professional credits and presenters will get free registration and lunch. We would like to encourage Spanish teachers to share their expertise and experiences with us by giving a 50-minute workshop. We are open to all topics but based on past events, the following are some high-interest topics:

1. Applying ACTFL guidelines in a communicative classroom
2. How to teach using TPRS
3. Project-based Learning
4. Teaching about Hispanic cultures
5. Strategies for AP literature classes
6. Teaching demonstration of comprehensible input
7. Using music in the classroom
8. Innovative techniques for teaching vocabulary and grammar
9. Using authentic Spanish resources
10. Improving speaking and listening skills
11. Differential instruction: English speakers vs. Spanish speakers
12. Using technology in the classroom
13. Fun activities for teaching verb conjugation
14. Creative and constructive games
15. Etc.

Submit your workshop proposal of 150-200 words and/or inquiries to Linda Mckeiver at Linda.Mckeiver@unt.edu by March 20, 2020. Presenters will be notified by early April.

Complete information on our programs of study at Spanish.unt.edu