Department of Spanish Tee-Shirt Design Contest

October 3 - November 3, 2018

The Department of Spanish at UNT is looking for talented students to submit a design for a tee-shirt that will represent the student and faculty community of our department.

THE STUDENT WITH THE WINNING DESIGN WILL RECEIVE: $ 100.00

OFFICIAL RULES

1. The contest is open to current UNT students who are majoring or minoring in Spanish.
2. All entries must be an original creation with a design that has never been published.
3. The winner’s design will become property of the Department of Spanish and cannot be reproduced or sold to a third party.
4. The design must include one of the following phrases or a variation:
   - Department of Spanish at UNT
   - Department of Spanish at the University of North Texas
5. Students are also encouraged to use the department’s slogan: “Whatever you do, Spanish can help you” and/or the website Spanish.unt.edu
6. The tee-shirt itself does not necessarily have to be UNT green; it can be any color.
7. The design must be completed online (using the website of your choice).
8. Only one entry per student.
9. The contest starts on October 3 at 6:00 am and closes November 3 at 5:00 pm.
10. A committee representing the Department of Spanish will review all entries and choose the top three entries.
11. All Spanish faculty members will vote for the best entry from the top three and the winner will be notified soon afterwards.

HOW TO SEND YOUR ENTRY

- Entries should be sent via email to: Dr. Pierina Beckman at: pierina.beckman@unt.edu
- Send the website link where the design was done.
- Use your UNT email only.
- Your entry must have your full name, student ID#, UNT email address and phone number.
- Specify in your entry if you are seeking a minor or major in Spanish.
